by the Stroke King's Adult Reviews

Introduction:

Bang Boat is a Reality Porn , High Def Porn site. If you hear some cries of "Thar she blows!" and you don't see any pirates nearby, then chances are you've drifted too close to the Bang Boat, where you'll see whores gladly trade their oars for a couple of stiff wooden cocks. These sluts will show you first hand that the only thing they love more than the ocean is their craving for fresh semen.

Review:

The Bang Boat will let you set sail towards 90 exclusive reality-themed porn episodes. Every scene shows a lovely young lass get picked up by a couple of wannabe sailors, get taken out on the high seas, and is soon awash in their sticky semen. The crew has been doing this for quite some time, so you should expect to see a nice variety of fresh new faces as well as some old pornstar favorites. And a new adventure arrives portside about once per month.

The latest Bang Boat updates are uploaded in a wide array of different video formats that are optimized for the most common types of connection speeds. If you still pilot a dinghy and are on dial up, then check out their tiny 56k .wmv format. But if you prefer a yacht, then you can also select a High Def quality clip encoded at 3.68Mbps and displayed at 1068 x 600 resolution. You can choose to download or stream either the full length videos, or segmented clips. The streams run right from within your browser, and the downloads are yours to keep because no kind of DRM is used.

The videos are all shot from a real boat on real water. Different boats are used, and some shoots are out in the open air on deck, while others are filmed down below. You'll find both boy/girl as well as some boy/boy/girl content, mixed in with some interracial. A really hot new upload features the lovely pale-skinned blonde Jada Love taking on a black cock that is as big as her forearm and loving every minute of it.

When you log into the Bang Boat members area, you'll notice right away that it's neatly organized. The latest episode is prominently featured right in the center of the page, and has some thumbnails and text to describe the action and the cast. The site has been online for several years, so their cast will most likely contain lots of your favorite stars. A search box makes it easy for you to find exactly who you're looking for quickly. If the search comes up empty then you can jump right to a virtual suggestion box to let the site owners know who you want to see featured next.

The exclusive content area is organized in a grid-like pattern, with 12 episodes on each page. Each episode is represented by a face-shot of the featured slut, along with some icons that tell you what type of content is available. Pay attention to these icons, because not all of the scenes are available in the HD format, and most older scenes are also not downloadable.

Every Bang Boat scene does have associated high-resolution photos. They are not just screen grabs of the videos, and are shown in 800 x 533 resolution. The newer sets have well over 100 pics that closely follow the action of the video. So if you want a quick preview of what to expect in the movie, then check out the pictures first.

A ticket for a monthly tour on the Bang Boat costs $29.95 with either a major credit card or online check. A monthly membership also entitles you to access 23 additional exclusive websites that fall under the porn star network. Each site has its own niche, and the update schedule is staggered in a way that you'll get access to a couple of brand new scenes on most days. An update calendar on the main page makes it easy to keep track of the latest additions, and the search feature that I mentioned earlier works across the entire network.

It should be noted that you'll be subject to a 24 episode download limit during your first month of membership. If you renew, that limit will increase to 48 per each additional month you remain a member. Not all of the episodes are downloadable anyway, especially the older stuff.

Bang Boat also offers several different lengths of trial memberships for some really cheap prices, but stay away and just join for the month. As a trial member you won't get to access all of the networked sites, you won't be able to download anything, and if you like what you see and decide to let your membership auto-renew, you'll be billed $39.95.
