Introduction:

Just Legal Babes is a Teen , High Def Porn site. Like a piece of fresh fruit, girls look and taste their best right when they first ripen. Just Legal Babes are the best breed and the most willing to be molded into a perfect little vixen for a real man's erotic pleasure. These chicks are horny and wet and can't wait to show you their tight young slits in brilliant HD.

Review:

If you like your sluts young, then you'll love Just Legal Babes. The site currently consists of 28 videos that feature the freshest teen pussies that you'll ever want to see. The majority of these videos are solo scenes where you can watch the young lady use her own fingers and toys to bring herself to a powerful climax. JustLegalBabes.com scenes are generally 10 minutes in length. There are also enough hardcore boy/girl sex scenes thrown in the mix to keep it interesting, and even a hot girl/girl update. These videos are longer and split into two or three 10 minute sections, and you can expect a new clip to be added to the site every week.

All of the JustLegalBabes.com videos are available as 1280 x 720 HD downloads in .wmv format. These files are so life-like, you won't miss a pimple or dimple on either cheek. Because they limit each clip to about 10 minutes, the file sizes are very manageable and average about 200 megs. You can also stream the HD file right from within the site if you'd rather not keep it. But since there is no DRM, feel free to collect the vids that get you off the quickest. Lesser quality .wmv and Quicktime .mov files are also available for streaming and downloading, if your connection isn't able to handle the full HD feed.

Just Legal Babes has the perfect trifecta of a quality porn site: it has hot young sluts, high quality video files, and also a painstaking attention to detail. The JustLegalBabes camera work is professional, so don't expect to see any shaky POV-style scenes that focus on a half-inch of dick buried in a half of a bent-over ass. The setting for each scene is well designed, and all videos get straight to the action with no annoying plots or dialogue that you would have just skipped over anyway. Some JustLegalBabes girls appear more than once on the site, like the deliciously pierced Christina Alexis, who first appears in a hot solo masturbation scene, then follows it up with a hardcore suck and fuck fest with a lucky young stud.

For all of the good with Just Legal Babes, there is unfortunately also a bit of bad. Overall, the design of the site should be more surfer friendly. Since there are 28 scenes split into various clips, and only JustLegalBabes.com 6 clips are displayed at one time, you'll have to scroll through page after page to find a babe you'd like to see more of. The sort order is upload date, which is normally fine... but some girls appear more than once, and it would be nice to be able to identify all of a particular slut's scenes at one time.

The JustLegalBabes picture pages are a complete mess. They are not organized or labeled in any meaningful way. It seems that each video has an associate picture set, but good luck trying to figure out which thumbnail goes with which scene. Each page shows only a collection of cropped thumbnails that will lead you to many pages of contact sheets. The thumbnails for each picture are also cropped here, meaning that you'll have to open up every picture to see exactly how high that sexy schoolgirl hiked up her skirt. This is really unfortunate, because the individual photos look great. They're big (1024 x 680) and clear, and shot real well. But you'll probably lose your patience before you view them all.

A monthly membership to Just Legal Babes will cost you $29.99 for one month, and you can sign up with a major credit card or through an online check. Full JustLegalBabes.com membership will also entitle you to access the Silver HD Network, which is a collection of 16 exclusive sites that all feature full HD pics and videos in lots of different XXX niches. All sites are update weekly, with the days of the week staggered so you'll be treated to several brand new scenes every day. Finding the newest content is made easy, since all updates are provided right on the main members page. For this reason, I don't recommend that you sign up for the three day trial, even though it costs only $1.85. You'll need more than that to go through the hundreds of HD scenes that this network provides. Plus, if you forget to cancel before the trial ends, the monthly membership rate will skyrocket up to $39.98.
